Odhran O’Brien

Odhran O’Brien is the Manager of the Perth Archdiocesan Archives having previously worked in the area of cultural heritage conservation for state and local government. A long-term member of the Professional Historian's Association (WA), Odhran has been associated with a number of archaeological works within the colonial precinct surrounding St Mary’s Cathedral and his Master’s thesis on Western Australian Catholicism was published by St Paul's Publications in 2015. These projects developed his interest in the history of Western Australia and completing a PhD at the University of Western Australia in the field.