Be part of a regional heritage initiative

The John Hawes Foundation invites businesses, community groups, governments, organisations, and individuals to be part of an important regional heritage initiative, aimed at rural revitalisation and strengthening our communities.

There are many ways to get involved, some of which are outlined below:

- Donate to the Foundation.
- Collaborate to deliver projects, programs, or activities through funding and/or in-kind partnerships.
- Resource one or more of our identified objectives, that might align with organisational outcomes or corporate social responsibilities.
- Provide voluntary services to assist with implementing our identified objectives.
- Develop customised funding or partnership options that mutually support the objectives of all involved parties.
