

Tanya Henkel

Tanya has been closely involved with the heritage of the MidWest Region for over 25 years in her capacity as firstly a Regional Heritage Adviser to the Heritage Council of WA and subsequently as a Heritage Adviser to a number of local governments in the region including the City of Greater Geraldton, and the Shires of Northampton, Irwin, Yalgoo and Cue.

With an Honours degree in History and English Tanya has also worked as a heritage consultant, compiling numerous heritage inventories throughout the state as well as working on conservation plans, strategies, interpretation plans and histories.

Tanya has been a member of the Board for many years and is passionate about the rich heritage of Monsignor Hawes.